TO MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND, IN CANADA, IN THE DIOCESE OF CALGARY

Bishop's Court, Calgary,
Alta., August 1, 1926

My dear Church People:—

It is with a feeling of deep sadness that I write this, my Valedictory, after 33 years of very happy life among you.

For some time I have known that I could not depend upon my mental powers, and that I ought to give place to a younger man, since I am in my 82nd year. On the other hand, it seemed hard to give up, when, in every part of the Diocese, there were friends waiting to give me a hearty welcome; bidding me go on, and making me realize that to resign meant for me the hardest wrench possible. I have, however, much to thank God for: and your ever loyal and loving devotion, shown through all my episcopate, cheer and encourage me when resigning and make me feel that you may make the greatest claim upon my time and thought while I am here on earth, and that increasing prayer for you all will be a duty and a privilege.

I am under the greatest obligations to Archdeacon Hayes. He has been one of the truest and sincerest of friends and fellow-workers, who has rendered me invaluable service in my declining years.

I have no words with which to express my deep gratitude to those who, in their kind thoughtfulness, have helped to provide for me and mine.

Finally, Brethren: "Whatsoever things are true; whatsoever things are honorable; whatsoever things are just; whatsoever things are pure; whatsoever things are lovely; whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

I am,

Faithfully and lovingly yours,
W. Cyprian Pinkham, Bishop.

U.F.A. Convention.

What one of the Didsbury delegates characterizes as one of the most successful conventions held, took place at Olds on Tuesday, when the U.F.A. Federal Association met to nominate their candidate for the forthcoming Federal election.

Those attending from the Didsbury district included Mrs. Noah Eckel of Burnside, Mrs. W. J. Hillyard, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scheidt, H. E. Scheidt, W. D. Archer, E. K. Cullen, Jas. Worrell, Dave Irwin, W. J. McCoy, Stewart Tighe, and W. J. Gibbs.

These were four delegates from Didsbury, but the convention was open to all except for voting privileges.

There was no other nomination than that of Mr. Speakman put forward, and in accepting the latter stated it was on the condition that his supporters were fully aware that he could not take an active part in the campaign.

Mr. Speakman it will be remembered, recently went through a serious illness, and has not yet fully recovered.

Now Spores Can't Taint Your Butter

Spores are the arch enemies of butter. They attack the wraps even before they are used, and rob the butter of its greatest quality—flavour.

Appleford wraps give double protection against spores. First they are made absolutely grease-proof. Secondly, they are shipped in mould-proof packages which protect the wraps until they are actually used. This is an exclusive Appleford feature.

Tolerance

Some years ago that master craftsman among movie picture directors, D. W. Griffiths, conceived and produced a great spectacular film play under the title "Intolerance." Like other Griffith productions it was not only a wonderful and entertaining picture, but it sought to teach a great lesson. It depicted in a convincing manner the wrongs inflicted upon humanity at different stages of the world's history as a result of the intolerant views held by those in power for the time being.

Unquestionably, with the growth of education and a more widespread enlightenment of people, there is a lessening of bigotry and a larger degree of toleration in the world today than ever before in its history, and, it is a matter of rejoicing to know this spirit is developing. Nevertheless, there is plenty of room for a still greater development of this spirit not only in international relations, but within the bounds of each individual nation.

With another general election pending in Canada it is perhaps timely to urge the necessity for the display of a more tolerant spirit and attitude in matters political. As individuals we may differ on points of constitutional law, but that is no reason why one person or group should denounce those who do not see eye to eye with them as disloyal either to Canada or the Empire. East and West may hold opposite opinions on the subject of the tariff, and both be perfectly honest and sincere in their views, but such difference of opinion surely provides no reason why the West should denounce the East as desirous of bleeding the West white, or for the East to accuse the West as selfish and ready to ruin all Eastern industry. Unity of opinion on such a controversial question is impossible, but it is possible that there be, and there should be, a tolerant attitude and a respect for each other's views.

A spirit of tolerance should characterize the adherents of every religious denomination or sect, yet all too frequently the reverse is true and the narrowest bigotry and bitter intolerance is displayed. In this, however, it is pleasant to note that the old racial and religious antagonisms and intolerance which for so many years in our past history disgraced and disrupted Canada have largely passed away. Today in our own country as well as elsewhere danger seems to lie in the wordy warfare between the Fundamentalists and the Modernists. By all means let there be full discussion and debate. Only so will the full truth be disclosed and established, but in it all let there be charity and tolerance.

It is well to remember that intolerance and bigotry are by no means confined to religion and politics. As Dr. Frank Glenn, head of the University of Wisconsin, and former editor of The Century Magazine, recently pointed out, there are bigots of patriotism, bigots of education, bigots of science, bigots of business, bigots of journalism, bigots of medicine, bigots of theology, bigots of reform. Each and every one of them is dangerous, and every one of them doing real damage to the cause of truth.

There is a very real need still apparent for a constant preaching of the gospel of tolerance; a very real need for combatting the still all too prevalent tendency on the part of many people to adopt an intolerant attitude towards all people and all questions with whom or which they are not in agreement. This "I alone am right, and you are wrong and must therefore be suppressed" attitude is the cause of more heart-burnings and community quarrels than almost any one other thing in our present-day civilization.

Intolerance, nothing else, has split many a village and small town into factions not only to the detriment of each and every individual, but to such an extent that all community spirit and enterprise has been killed. And, after all, it is the most futile and nonsensical of human weaknesses. On the other hand, respect for other people's opinions, the encouragement of a spirit of charity, makes for peace, happiness and contentment in the home, for helpful co-operation in community life and effort, and for strength and unity in the nation. Intolerance aims at the suppression of truth, but truth cannot be suppressed. It is mighty and will prevail, and all that intolerance in thought and action can accomplish is to create ill-will and discord and thus retard the onward march of progress and achievement.

Anyway, the man who has no faith in himself is able to realize his own weakness.

Wonder Canyon Of Rockies

Trapper and Explorer Finds Gorge That Rivals the Colorado Canyon

A deep mountain canyon, carved almost perpendicularly through a high rocky ridge, a canyon so deep that it is said to rival the world-famous Colorado canyon, has been discovered by Albert Mercer, trapper and explorer, who has returned from a long journey through the little-known wilderness of the Copper River country in British Columbia.

This spring Mercer attempted to penetrate the country of the south fork of the Copper River, a country that has aroused his curiosity. Even though he did not reach his objective, he discovered the canyon and he believes that this find amply rewarded him.

The canyon is from 12 to 15 miles long and from three to four thousand feet deep. It is a paradise for mountain goat, Mercer claims. The canyon, he says, is so rough that wolves and other enemies of the goat cannot penetrate its fastnesses. He saw goats skipping about on points of rocks where a slip would have meant a straight drop of thousands of feet.

The south fork of the Copper River is described as a great grizzly bear country and would be a favored hunting spot if more accessible.

Canada's Envious Position

Largest Trade Balance Per Capita Of Any Country in the World

Canada now has the largest favorable trade balance per capita of any country in the world. For the fiscal year 1926 Canada's favorable trade balance amounted to $401,134,405, an increase over the previous year of $116,705,299. At the end of March, 1926, Canada's favorable trade balance was almost entirely with the British empire, the amount for the empire being $392,631,842 and for foreign countries only $8,502,563. The unfavorable balance of trade with the United States amounting to $123,970,454 was approximately compensated for by a favorable balance with other foreign countries.

Prolongs State Of War

Occupied Area in Germany is a Thorn in the Flesh

By continued occupation of large areas of the Rhineland, the allies are prolonging the state of war, Chancellor Wilhelm Marx declares.

"So long as this state of war endures, the thorn is bound to remain in the flesh of the German people," he said. "It behooves the rest of the world, if it honestly desires peace, to release the still occupied zones."

The chancellor said he would consider it his task in September to carry on negotiations for Germany's entry to the League of Nations.

SAYS NOTHING SUPPRESSED IN DUNCAN REPORT

Montreal.—The Montreal Star carries the following Ottawa special: "In view of the discussion of the political platform and in the newspapers as to the Duncan report on investigations into the customs department and the conflicting allegations that are made, Inspector Walter Duncan, special investigating officer, was asked for a clarifying statement as to whether anything was suppressed, and if so, what it was.

"I was detailed," he said, "to make an investigation into the administration of the customs service in Montreal and that district, and I did so. I seized papers and documents in the office of J. E. A. Bisson, chief preventive officer of the district, and I summoned and examined on oath officials who, I thought, were in position to throw light on the question. The evidence was taken and transcribed, I submitted first an interim report and afterwards a fuller report. Both of these reports were produced before the committee of the house that investigated the customs department and were read into the record of the inquiry. Nothing they contained was suppressed or deleted, but the evidence, comprising 319 pages, upon which the reports were based, was not read into the record, although it was tabled in the house. The exhibits were also tabled.

"What I did not produce before the committee and what was not published was a memorandum book to a certain woman. The notes in the book were in shorthand. I had them extended."

Modified Services

Will Not Be Complete Suspension of Religious Services in Mexico

Mexico City.—The Archbishopric issued a statement declaring that the withdrawal of the priests from the churches on August 1, as announced in the recent pastoral letter, does not mean complete suspension of religious services.

The services suspended will be holy communion, confirmation, confession, consecration and some sacraments which require the intervention of priests. Services which can be continued without the intervention of priests are modified masses, marriages and baptisms.

It is also announced by the archbishopric that during the cessation of the priests' activities a sincere act of repentance on the part of a Mexican Catholic will be considered equivalent to the confession necessary for death and marriage sacraments.

Australia Expects British Parliamentarians to Make Trip Alone

London.—Australia is set against wives. When the Australian cricket team sailed for Great Britain, the Australian cricket board of control put a ban on wives accompanying the members of the team.

And now the Australian branch of the Empire Parliamentary Association has advised British parliamentarians who are soon to visit Australia that they are not expected to be accompanied by their wives.

J. H. Thomas and several of the other members of parliament have refused to make the trip because their wives are barred.

Loss In Florida Storms

Property Damage Is Estimated To Run Into Millions

Jacksonville, Fla.—Reports of damage where the storm had passed came in as crippled wire facilities were slowly restored. A message from Nassau via Miami fixed the damage there at $5,000,000.

A message received by the Munson Line in New York from the steamer Munamar, at Nassau, said that place was wrecked by the hurricane.

Miami's damage was principally to the Avocado pear crop. Palm Beach's playground suffered heaviest damage in the loss of more than a score of yachts and small craft which went down when a pier gave way.

Daytona Beach experienced damage to light and power lines, disrupted telephone service, uprooted trees, washed out highways, wrecked beach concessions and damaged small pleasure craft. After a night without lights, the power service was restored.

A rum running vessel was reported ashore several miles north of Ormond.

The storm took only two lives as it passed up the Florida coast, but it caused property damage estimated in the millions, for Palm Beach's loss was estimated at $1,000,000, that of Stuart, Fla., at $250,000 and Miami's at $100,000, in addition to damage to shipping, telegraph and telephone wires and crops at scores of places.

Asks Canada's Co-operation

British Government Asks Aid in "War" On Rum Runners

London.—Canada will be asked by the British Government to co-operate to the fullest extent in the fulfilment of the agreement between Great Britain and the United States to facilitate the suppression of rum-running. As a result of the visit of General Andrews, chief American prohibition officer, details of co-operation between Britain and American authorities in this connection have been arranged. Canada is not directly affected by the main part of the agreement which is directed toward the Bahamas from which a vast flood of the prohibited fluid has been pouring into the Southern States. An effort will be made, however, to prevent the illegal use of the British flag by rum-runners who are not on British registry, and it is believed that Canadian authorities will be able to help along the enforcement efforts in this direction.

Re-Draft Petroleum Laws

Revise Rules Governing Oil Leases in Alberta

Edmonton.—Revised rules and regulations in respect to oil and gas leases in all parts of the province have been prepared by the Alberta Government, but will not be put into force for the time being. The re-drafting of the petroleum laws in this regard was undertaken some months ago when the prospects for Alberta's entering into possession of her natural resources were bright. It was felt then to be highly desirable that a uniform procedure for leasing oil and gas rights in all classes of lands be provided and new regulations were drafted accordingly.

Mine Trouble in Cape Breton

Glace Bay, N.S.—The trouble at the collieries as a result of the United Mineworkers' members refusal to work with members of the One Big Union is spreading. In addition to No. 16, which has been tied up since Monday night, the Florence Colliery at Sidney Mines is closed down and the Princess is working with reduced force. It is feared that the struggle will become general.

Increased C.P.R. Earnings

Montreal.—The statement of earnings and expenses of the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the month of June, 1926, shows an increase in net profits of $1,242,652.89 over the corresponding month last year, and for the six months ended June 30, 1926, an increase of $6,159,041 over the first six months of 1925.

GOVERNMENT TO DECLARE WAR ON BOOTLEGGERS

Toronto.—The Dominion Government has entered the "fight to a finish" which has been declared against bootleggers following the deaths of 18 persons in Western Ontario presumably as the result of the flooding of that area with poisonous alcohol. The co-operation of the Federal authorities was promised in a telegram received here from the deputy minister of customs.

Hon. W. H. Price, acting attorney-general for Ontario and leader in the war against the illicit whiskey traffic, declared a special officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was being sent here to consult with provincial officers in an effort to aid in the discovery of the point of origin of the death-dealing fluid.

It is indicated that the assistance of the Dominion Government is also to be sought in an effort to prevent a recurrence of the unprecedented liquor tragedies. As a result of the investigations of the past few days, it was unofficially stated that the Ontario Government would ask that federal legislation be passed compelling the registration of unnaturalized foreigners. It was intimated that the probe has shown the liquor traffic to be almost entirely in the hands of foreigners.

Phillipines Import

Wheat Flour

Bread Is Taking Place Of Rice As Food

Manila, P.I.—Consumption of wheat flour in the Philippines has increased in the last few years. Figures of the bureau of commerce and industry show that although rice is the chief staple the Filipinos are using bread as a supplementary food generally and in some cases as their principal article of diet. Wheat importations last year were 76,000 tons as compared with 45,000 tons in 1921. Four-fifths came from the United States.

Anchorage, Alaska.—An experiment in raising sugar beets will be made in Alaska.

The department of agriculture and the Alaska railroad will co-operate in the effort. The experiment will be made in the Matanuska and Tanana valleys north of here. Cost of production and quality of product will largely determine the future of the venture.

Complaint Against New Settlement Act

Union Members in British House Say Act Is Failure

London.—Complaints that the present entire settlement act is a failure, coupled with the suggestion that the sums unspent each year for the assistance of immigration should be carried forward annually for the same purpose and not returned to the consolidated fund, which cannot further be drawn upon, were made in parliament by Unionist members from Lancashire and Cheshire. The complainants assert that the greater part of the £9,000,000 which has been provided by the settlement act during the last three years has not been spent and under the present regulations is now no longer available.

They also declare that the clause providing for Dominion contributions is acting as a check upon immigration because of the conditions imposed by the various Dominions. They suggest that a portion of the fund provided by the British Government should be utilized without reference to the Dominions' contribution overseas.

Gives Reason For Coal Strike

England Returned Too Soon to Gold Standard Says Beaverbrook

London.—Lord Beaverbrook said recently on the White Star liner Macclesfield for Canada via New York. In a long article printed over his signature in The Daily Express on the eve of his departure he declared the failure of the recent proposition for the purchase of the White Star line by the British shipping industries was due entirely to the British official policy of maintaining the gold standard. He intimated that the proposal to transfer £6,000,000 pounds from Britain to the U. S. for the purchase of this line was opposed by the British financial authorities on the ground that it would depress the value of the pound in New York and hamper the present exchange conditions. He also argued that the coal strike is a direct result of the too early return of the gold standard as this raised the cost of selling coal in foreign countries, so that the cost of production at home had to be lowered in order to keep up the possibility of competition in the world market.

Belgium Will Pay Debts

Premier Declares No Request For Cancellation Will Be Made

Brussels.—Belgium is determined to meet all its financial obligations, despite the serious situation confronting its treasury, Premier Jaspar has declared.

Questioned as to the possibility of a request for cancellation of its debt to the United States, he said: "Belgium has signed the Washington agreement and does not think of not keeping her engagements, however heavy may be the charges to pay the exterior debt, which necessitates payments in dollars which very seriously weigh on Belgium's treasury."

MANITOBA POOL FAVORS BUYING OF ELEVATORS

Brandon, Man.—Endorsation of the action of the board of directors in declining the offer of the United Grain Growers, Limited, to form a joint holding company to operate United Grain Growers' and Pool elevators and a resolution in favor of buying or leasing United Grain Grower elevators in Manitoba were features of the annual meeting of delegates to the Manitoba Wheat Pool here.

These resolutions, passed with only four dissentients, followed upon a full discussion of the section of the report of the board of directors dealing with elevator policy.

The failure of United Grain Growers, Limited, and the Alberta Pool, to agree with regard to the management of a joint elevator holding company was brought before the meeting and a telegram was read from R. O. German, secretary of the Alberta Pool, stating that following the breakdown of negotiations between the Alberta Pool and the United Grain Growers, the Pool had notified United Grain Growers of their readiness to purchase their elevators in Alberta and had appointed a committee to carry on negotiations for this purpose.

Pool grain was handled at a cost of 1.28 cents per bushel this year, according to the interim financial statement presented by the pool shareholders' auditors, Miller, McDonald and Company.

Cannot Contract Foot and Mouth Disease From Meat Says Doctor

The Hague, Holland.—There is no danger of foot and mouth disease being contracted through the use of the meat of animals affected by the disease and killed during the quarantine period, according to Dr. Laurens, director of the Institute of State.

As a result of Dr. Laurens' experiments, Dr. Kan, minister of the interior and agriculture, has asked the director of the institute and Dr. Berger, director of veterinary service, to confer with the British authorities with a view to allaying the fears of the latter with regard to infections from animals affected by foot and mouth disease.

CROP REPORT

Generally speaking, with the exception of one or two fairly well defined areas of more or less limited extent, the wheat crop situation may be said to be satisfactory. Given fairly favorable conditions up to harvest, the province will reap a somewhat larger crop than last year. The areas of very poor crop are less extensive than last year, and the situation throughout is better.

There has been, however, a considerable period of great heat, and it is idle to argue that this has not had its deteriorating effect. In many districts this condition has been relieved by rains varying in degree, but in the districts where the crop was light, it has had the effect of destroying the prospect for any very large yields. The chief territory thus affected may be described roughly in two sections, the first being the southeast corner of the province, from Empress district south through Medicine Hat district, and the other being a belt extending from Edmonton eastward and north-eastward to the border of the province with Clover Bar, Mundare and Vegreville districts as its southern base and the St. Paul line of the Canadian National railways north of the Saskatchewan river as its northern border. North and east of Edmonton through the belt described, the crops are very light, having suffered continuously from lack of moisture. This is an area which has in past years invariably produced good crops, so that the condition experienced this year is most unusual. In this belt the only crop that is showing up is that on summerfallow and early sowing. This, with rain within the next week, will yield fairly well. The remainder of the crop is poor. To the east of Vegreville the situation is better, and east of Vermillion to the border the crop is very satisfactory.

In the Peace River country the crop generally is good south of the Peace, but not so satisfactory north of the river.

In the irrigated districts good crops are assured. The prospects for the corn and sugar beet crops are satisfactory.

Local and General.

It is with a considerable amount of pleasure that one hears the Town Council of Didsbury has reduced the mill rate for the current year. It is welcome for two reasons. First, that it may be taken as an indication of better things to come, and secondly, to the local resident it will be a source of pride and satisfaction that the town has not only met its obligations, but has so far advanced in its recovery as to now give a certain amount of relief to the long burdened tax-payer.

The past twelve years have been a veritable nightmare to our municipal bodies, and to many of them it has been one long period of anxiety and depression.

This period, however, is now passing, and is gradually being replaced by a feeling of greater security and hopefulness of the future.

Dr. Evans returned on Saturday from a visit to the east.

The W.C.T.U. will hold an ice cream social at Clovermount school on Friday, August 6th.

Miss Ruth Gable, pupil of R. M. Fleury, was very successful in passing her primary music examination, receiving very good marks.

The Calgary Herald announces a golf tournament open to various districts in Alberta, in connection with which it is understood several of our local players have intimated their intention to have a part.

Rev. H. Clay, who is spending a couple of weeks' vacation east of High River, will return on Saturday, and announces that he will hold service at Crossfield on Sunday next at 9.30 a.m., and at St. Cyprian's, Didsbury, at 11:30 a.m.

A surprise party was held at C. F. Rennie's on Friday last as a farewell to C. McFarland, who is leaving for Rockyford, and who has been teacher at Clovermount for three years. There was a good attendance. During the evening a presentation of a handsome club bag was made to Mr. McFarland as an expression of esteem from his friends in the district. A splendid program of vocal and instrumental music was introduced and much enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. G. Nixon of Edmonton, with her daughter Gwen, is visiting her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Clarke for a few weeks.

A dance will be held at C. H. Rinehart's barn on Friday, August 13th. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. H. Pearson, who recently successfully underwent an operation, has now left the hospital but will remain with friends in Calgary for a time before returning home.

The Town Council is making a reduction in its tax rate this year of ten mills, which no doubt will be welcome news to the tax payers.

Mae Studer Campbell, A.T.C.M., will resume her Pianoforte and cello classes the first week of September. Arrangements for lessons may be made by writing to 503, Anderson Apt., Calgary.

Last Call for Entries for the Exhibition.

Time Is Short -- and You Should Hurry! Hurry!!

Residents of both town and country who intend to exhibit at Didsbury's fair on Tuesday and Wednesday, next, should make sure of their entry by having it recorded as early as possible.

Mr. Gibbs, the secretary of the Agricultural Society, will be in the office of A. McNaughton to receive entries and give any particulars required.

Arrangements for the fair have been pushed ahead this week, and everything indicates that it will be a tremendous success.

A good program of sports will be submitted and keen competition will be witnessed for all events. The horse-shoe competition, Sid Watt, reports, is arousing a lot of interest, and entries for this event are likely to be numerous.

Make sure of your entry, however, for the exhibition.

Procrastination will not only steal your time, but maybe deprive you of the chance of winning a few prizes.

Minnesota Patch Prefers the Road.

After winning several events in Ontario, W. Burrell's horse, Minnesota Patch, when approached about returning to Didsbury for the races on August 11th, expressed its approval providing it be allowed to travel by road. This privilege, the owner, thought, could be granted, and a motor truck having been secured the journey from Toronto was commenced on July 30th. Good time was maintained throughout the trip, and Didsbury was reached on Saturday last.

Mr. Burrell states that a few days' rest will put his horse in fine shape again, and on Wednesday next it will be ready to repeat the performance successfully made in Ontario.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.
This is a condition (or set) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—broken down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its cause, it is almost numberless, its symptoms are much the same; the more prominent being, sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what a relief is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour, vital strength and energy to throw off these morbid feelings, and as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, THERAPION NO. 3 than by any other known combination. Soberly as it is taken in accordance with the directions accompanying it, it will hasten the restoration of the EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRESH, and a new existence imparted in place of the old one that has so lately seemed worn out, used up, and valueless. This wonderful medicinal preparation is suitable for all ages, constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a disease or derangement whose main feature is weakness, that will not be speedily and permanently overcome by this recuperative essence, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that has preceded it for this wide-spread & numerous class of human ailments. Gandhi Would Reform India

Tells What Measures He Would Take If He Were Emperor

"If I were Emperor of India," Mahatma Gandhi, the great Indian Nationalist leader, states, "I would prohibit the importation of intoxicating liquors and close down every distillery; I would summon the representatives of both Hindus and Moslems, search their pockets and deprive them of all eatables and weapons, and then lock them together in one room and open it only after they had settled their quarrels."

"I would extend the hand of fellowship to the whole world, irrespective of caste, color or creed; I would disband the entire army of occupation in India, retaining only enough police to protect the citizens; I would guarantee full protection to every European as well as all honest European enterprises; I would guarantee protection to all forms of religious worship, except that which is repugnant to the moral sense of mankind; I would not bribe the frontier tribes as they are now being bribed, but would cultivate their friendship, and I would impose a prohibitive tariff on all foreign cloth."

Mothers Value this Oil.—Mothers who know how suddenly croup may seize their children and how necessary prompt action is in applying relief, always keep at hand a supply of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, because experience has taught them that this is an excellent preparation for the treatment of this ailment. And they are wise, for its various uses render it a valuable medicine.

There are a few garters at each side over the hips, and the long set-in sleeves are finished with tailored cuffs. A tie of polka-dot crepe is worn under the collar, the loose ends passing through two bound buttonholes. The bodice top skirt has a cluster of plaits in the centre front, the back being plain. The blouse No. 1038 is in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust. Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards 27 inch bordered material as illustrated. SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

AUGUST 8

THE GIVING OF THE MANNA

Golden Text: Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life. John 6:35.
Lesson: Exodus 16:1-36.
Devotional Reading: John 6:33-40.

Explanations and Comments

I. The People Complain of Lack of Food, verses 1-3.—This is the third recorded "murmuring"; see the Historical Background. "Would that we had died by the hand of Jehovah in the land of Egypt," the people cried, "when we sat by the flesh-pots, when we did eat bread to the full."

They remember the flesh-pots, but not the affliction. Human nature does not change. Murmurers still have short memories. The spectacles of regret magnify past blessings and bedwarf past sufferings.

The Israelites even accused Moses of having brought them forth into the wilderness to kill them all with hunger!

"It is worthy of remark that those who are the most unworthy of liberty are wont to behave most ungratefully towards their deliverers" (Milton).

II. Food Is Promised, verses 4-12.—And Jehovah spake unto Moses, saying, "I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah your God."—you shall know it by this manifestation of my power and care. Here in the early part of the wilderness life the complaints of the people are treated with mildness, as if made by irresponsible children; but toward the end of their journeyings such complaints are severely punished, for after so many years' experience of God's providence, something better was expected from them.

Miller's Worm Powders are a pleasant medicine for worm-infested children, and they will take it without objection. When directions are followed it will not injure the most delicate child, as there is nothing of any injurious nature in its composition. They will speedily rid a child of worms and restore the health of the little sufferers whose vitality has become impaired by the attacks of these internal pests.

Reunited After Twenty-One Years

A most interesting reunion which took place on the Cunard liner Ascania, docked at Quebec last week, was when Mr. Harold Taylor, well-known buyer for the C.N.R. in Winnipeg came aboard and met his mother, who was one of the passengers. Mrs. Taylor had not seen her son for 21 years. In the picture above Mr. Taylor is shown on the left, while on the mother's left is her grandson, whom she had never seen.

Auxiliary Lungs

Artificial Lungs Provide Air Pilots With Oxygen For High Altitudes

Auxiliary lungs enabling airmen to reach unprecedented heights, are said to have been perfected by a French chemist, M. Garsaux. The Academy of Science regards the invention as one of the most important to the science of aviation in recent years. Artificial lungs, adjusted to a thestad, provide pilots with increasing amount of oxygen as the plane climbs. Experiments have shown that a pilot can stand minimized air pressure corresponding to a climb of 50,000 feet, hitherto unattainable by man.

Joanna laughed gaily with him. "Funny things to look forward to, golden weddings, aren't they?" he bantered, looking down at her quizzically.

"Fancy you, now, getting through the marrying stages fast enough to leave time for an anniversary like that!"

"Oh, I shan't be so quick to get married that I'll be likely to change my mind," Joanna retorted.

"Now that's a sensible resolve," Kenilworth agreed. She felt his arm tightening a bit. He was holding her closer than Brandon had, almost as close as her own dancing boys customarily did. She began to wonder much about him. She had thought him old, much too old, but he danced with her and talked to her on the level of easy youth. She had observed earlier in the evening that most of the men around the tables appeared to be much older than their women. But she reflected, they seemed to be men who had a place in life and, so were more worthwhile than inconsequential younger men. And she rather liked the change. Her companion was still talking to her as he swung her deftly in and out among the dancers on the well crowded floor.

AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Mrs. Dayman Gives Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the Credit

Colborne, Ontario.—"When I was first married I was very thin and weak. The doctor said I was weak and would never be able to have a child, but I did, and from the time my baby came I suffered all the time and doctored and took medicine. Life became a burden, and doctors said an operation could help me, but my husband was opposed to that. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine advertised, so I told my husband that I thought I would try it, that I might get some relief.

I had not taken one bottle when I could feel it helping me. I took five bottles and had better health. Now I have three girls and a boy and have done my work up to confinement. I am now at the Change of Life and owe my good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I take a bottle when I think I need it."

and your happy kind—is much more attractive when you're not set on being exclusively worn in one coat lapel. I shouldn't say half the things I really mean if I thought you'd be adding them up into a matrimonial sum. You'll find life is all too short for that sort of thing."

Joanna looked at him queerly. "I ought to say something to that," she announced, "but I'm not sure just what. 'It'll probably come to me in the middle of the night and then I'll know I'm a dumbbell.'"

"I shall supply your comments now, and spare your slumbers," he returned. "I don't like that dumbbell! You should say: 'Sit at my feet, sir, and speak freely of pleasant things. They shall enter one ear and depart not from the other!'"

"Your deliveries will have to be better than your samples, or they won't even get into the first ear," she promised him. "I thought we had decided to talk about Yvonne, and the husband. Why did she divorce him, if she had to marry him at all? I've always wondered about such things."

"Our beautiful friend is one who is never comfortable without a thrill," Kenilworth informed her. "A new husband is a thrill, I suppose. As for other reasons for Yvonne's whims, you'll probably find them out for yourself. She has taken a liking to you. I know the signs. She'll probably decide to take you under her wing. You will make an admirable foil for her."

"A curious turmoil shot through Joanna's blood. 'Yvonne Countant might take her, Joanna under her wing! The most glittering wings in the world according to her standards. She glanced shyly at the man who was dancing with her. He caught her glance and fathomed it.

"Quite probable, I assure you," he insisted. "And the obligation won't be on your side, you know. You mustn't forget that. It won't be the money. She's collected half of at least two millionaire fortunes already. It'll be Brandon."

"Mr. Brandon? I don't see what you mean."

"Now you've got me gossiping! Oh, well, we're all new friends. You'll play us one against the other, most likely. So I'll start your imagination working. If there is one thing in the world that our charming Yvonne desires, that she hasn't found a way to get, it's Brandon, your banker's nephew. And Brandon undoubtedly will be having a try at you. Because any other woman would handle the situation differently I've a mind Yvonne will want to take her newest rival right into her own camp."

He spoke lightly, almost whimsically but Joanna was certain he was serious. And she remembered her impression that the coming of Yvonne and Kenilworth to Brandon's table had been pre-arranged. It made another puzzle that baffled her. She tried to catch Kenilworth off his guard. "Why are you telling me this?" she flung up at him.

He didn't answer her at once, but smiled, quizzically again, and let his eyes roam over her upturned face. The music stopped, and he guided her to the rim of the dance floor, toward an opening between the tables. Still he had not acknowledged her sudden question. She put her hand on his sleeve and stopped him.

"You haven't told me, you know," she reminded him, standing quite still so that he could not evade her again; "Why you warn me against your—both of your friends."

"For perfectly obvious reasons, my dear girl," Kenilworth said, then, meeting her gaze steadily; "I've suddenly decided to have a try at you myself. Brandon plays his games deep, and I think Yvonne plays her's deeper still. And just now you are the stake. I'm going to play for you, too."

CHAPTER XI.

Joanna is invited To Yvonne's

The flush that deepened the hues of Joanna's cheeks, and the wrinkle in her brow, did not escape Yvonne when Kenilworth and the girl returned to the table. Brandon, too, saw, and divided a quick glance between the girl and the man who had been dancing with her. Yvonne, in her fluttering way touched the girl's hand.

"He's been making love to you! I knew it. Was I right? Didn't he begin with your eyes?"

Joanna's frown vanished. In the sheer joy of her closeness to the woman whose exotic beauty and fascinating adventures in a world of hectic romance had made her a celebrity, her trouble over the mystery which confronted her in each new association was quickly charmed away.

"Am I supposed to tell?" she parried, appealing to Kenilworth, who was nonchalantly lighting a gold-tipped cigarette. He answered easily: "Some day, my dear, you will wear your loves like medals on your breast, for your friends to estimate and your rivals to envy. You may as well begin now. I make my confession. I promised to overwhelm you with my adorations. But you must assure the company that I did not begin by paying you compliments."

"I have heard," Brandon remarked, "that Roddy never compliments a woman. A dozen of his victims have assured me that he declares his love first and then tells them why. His reasons are, therefore, accepted as being truthful statements of fact, and not flatteries. A woman doesn't class what is said of her by a man who is in love with her, as flattery. She believes it to be a just inventory of her perfections."

"Clever, that!" Yvonne declared. "It proves what I've always contended—that a man ought to have a style of his own. It's positively tiresome to listen to most men go sentimental."

"What weary hours you must spend!" Kenilworth exclaimed. "I promise you complete relaxation if you will take a turn on the floor with me. Miss Manners, here, is dying to ask Brandon what sort of a chap I am, and to ask him who you're planning to marry next."

"A cocktail, first," she demanded. A waiter, to whom Kenilworth had entrusted a pair of silver flasks, responded to his signal. Joanna had refused a previous offering and had not been pressed. This time Brandon quietly peached across the table and turned up her glass.

When Yvonne, with a nod to her, had moved away for her dance with Kenilworth, Joanna turned to Brandon eagerly.

"He seemed to read just what I was thinking," she said. "Tell me about him—and Yvonne, too. I never dreamed that some day I would know her. You see she has been one of those interesting people we talk about just to prove that we keep up with the news."

Large Appetites

Average Person Consumes One Thousand Pounds of Food in A Year

Averaging the small and large eater, it requires 1,000 pounds of food per person to maintain him a year. The average person will eat, in that time, 120 pounds of meat and fish, 378 pounds of breadstuffs, a similar amount of potatoes, vegetables and fruits and some 20 pounds of butter and cheese. There are some 1,600,000,000 people in the world and 100,000,000 of them produce the food for the entire number.

Brings Substantial Income

Missouri Woman Makes Good Living Selling Butterflies

Income from the sale of moths and butterflies has helped Mrs. Edith B. DeCoster, of Buckfield, Missouri, to educate her three daughters and take a year's vacation in California.

It began with the finding of a caterpillar in the garden by her daughter, which gave her the idea. She has sold tens of thousands of moths, butterflies and cocoons to teachers and naturalists.

Seals Sink Boat

Power Launch Sinks When Fifteen Seals Climb Aboard

Seals looking for a place to sun themselves are playing havoc with small boats off Santa Monica, Cal.

Attracted to the bay in unusually large numbers by good fishing, the seals have failed to find rocks upon which to sun and so have taken to the small craft anchored a short distance off shore.

A 22-foot power launch sank after fifteen of the animals, many of them weighing more than a human being, climbed aboard. Two other vessels were almost sunk before the seals were driven away.

H. E. Roppel, pastor

There was a large audience in attendance last Sunday evening and listened with rapt attention to the sermon based on the good old hymn, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul". This was the first of a series of vespers, having to do with the Hymnology and gospel as contained in some of our good old, but almost forsaken hymns. The series will be continued as follows:—

Next Sunday evening, Aug. 8th. "Lead Kindly Light." Key note—seeking guidance.

Aug. 15th, "Take my Life and let it be." Key note—consecration.

Aug. 22nd "Stand up for Jesus." Key note—loyalty to Christ.

Aug. 29th. "Abide with me." Key note—evening prayer.

The Sunday-school picnic held at the Dog-pond creek last Thursday, was well attended by young and old. The sports were of a good variety and were heartily engaged in by the scholars. The lunches both dinner and supper were most generous and delicious as evidenced by the many, happy, busy faces lingering around the picnic tables. Everybody seemed to agree that it was a real picnic.

D. Huestis, Field sec. of the Lord's Day Alliance was a visitor in town over Sunday last and gave an address in the Evangelical church on Sunday morning in behalf of Sabbath observance.

Miss Anna Mueller and brother Otto are back again from their trip to the east. They report a real good time and a well-worth while trip.

Rev. Roppel is spending this week at Sunnyslope appointment making pastoral visits.
